

Maidenhead

My dear Sir

I have returned your valuable vol. of Tracts by the G^o. W^m. Railway as a parcel, because it is less likely to be injured than in the Post, which has lately damaged several books of mine. I am confident that you will receive it safely.

The tracts are most of them curious, and one of them I should like to reprint, but my hands are so full at present that I cannot now undertake it: hereafter

I may borrow the vol. again.

One of the tracts is sadly out of its place, viz
the attack on Hubbard.

Raleigh's untitled production belongs to 1628, and therefore ought to follow the two tracts w^{ch} succeed it.

With my best thanks, I am

Yours very much obliged

J. Pape Collier

L. R. Harlowe Esq.

I am going away from home for a week or two, but on or about the 1st. Aug^t you will receive

No. 3 of my reprints, marked with the cost as usual.
